GUIDELINES FOR STUDENTS AND TEACHING STAFF ON PLAGIARISM

(As approved in 4th meeting of Academic Council held on 20th November, 2015)

Ethics and honesty are the most important and integrated components of the academic activities in teaching or research, which are founded upon extremely high moral values. Hence, it is the responsibility of the student to ensure that the project report/ dissertation/ thesis/ research paper/ technical report submitted by him is free of plagiarism which means that no part of the project report/ dissertation/ thesis/ research paper/ technical report has been copied from other sources and all sources used for the dissertation have been properly cited. However, this judgment is the responsibility of the teaching staff.

Definition of Plagiarism

1. Turning in someone else's work as one's own;
2. Copying words or ideas from someone else, without giving credit to the original work;
3. Failing to put a quotation in quotation marks;
4. Giving incorrect information about the source of a quotation;
5. Changing words but copying the sentence structure of a source without giving credit to the original work;
6. Copying more than 20 words continuously from a source, whether you give credit to the original work or not; and
7. Manipulation or misinterpretation of others' work (published or un-published) as her/his own by modifying numerical values in figures, tables and illustrations.

The project report/ dissertation/ thesis/ technical report will not come under the plagiarism provided;

- a. Matching text is not more than 20% in the entire report.
- b. Matching text is not more than 5% similarity from any particular source, and
- c. It is not more than 15% in one continuous block except references/bibliography

Even if originality report is under 20%, the supervisor is still required to review the report to ensure that no portion of the report is plagiarized. The faculty members are required to made efforts to bring down the indicated upper limit to minimum. This judgment is the responsibility of the supervisor; in case of any violation of plagiarism rules the said report will be rejected at any stage

Madan Mohan Malaviya University of Technology

Gorakhpur - 273010 (U.P.) India

Established by Act. No. 22 of 2013 of U.P. Govt. (Formerly Madan Mohan Malaviya Engineering College, Gorakhpur)

Revised Authorship Policy approved in 10th Academic Council meeting held on 30.10.2017

Authorship carries responsibility. It entails a public acknowledgment of scientific or professional contribution to a disseminated piece of information. Therefore, there is need to transform and evolve an academic system, so that, integrity and honesty is preserved in terms of authorship of research finding as well as data and results presentation.

Madan Mohan Malaviya University of Technology perceives that a proper professional policy to authorship issues could prevent abuse of junior members of research teams and prevent inadvertent academic dishonesty and conflict of interest amongst researchers. For achieving the objective of creating academic community with good sense of responsibility and high integrity, following "Authorship Policy" is hereby prescribed upon all published or unpublished papers that may form part of a thesis/ dissertation/ project work carried out as a part of course during period of stay at the Madan Mohan Malaviya University of Technology, Gorakhpur.

1. The thesis/ dissertation/ project report must address a significant research issue and be primarily the student's researcher's own research work. The research work must be conducted completely during the period students enrolled in the University for the Academic Degree such as PhD, M. Tech, or sponsored project.
2. The student can include the published material during the period students enrolled in the University in his/her thesis/ dissertation/project report presented for fulfillment of the Doctor of Philosophy or Master of Technology Degree or Project Completion Certificates.
3. The published technical paper incorporated in the thesis/dissertation/project report must include a clear statement on the contribution made by the student. The purpose of this statement is to summaries and clearly identifies the nature and extent of the intellectual input contributed by the student.
4. Where the included technical papers can have multiple authorship, the student must be the first or principal author and his/her supervisor(s) will be the second author and onward
5. Minor contributions to the research or to the writing for publication are appropriately acknowledged, such as in footnotes or in an introductory statement.
6. Manuscripts which have been rejected by a journal must not be included unless they have been substantially rewritten to address referees' comments/ observations.
7. The following activities do not by themselves constitute a claim to authorship without substantial direct technical intellectual contribution to the work:
 - a) Being Head of department, holding other positions of authority, or personal friendship with the authors;

- b) Providing a routine technical contribution which is part of duty of authority concerned;
 - c) Providing routine assistance in some aspects of the project which is part of duty of authority concerned;
 - d) Acquisition of funding which is part of duty of authority concerned;
 - e) General supervision by the Doctoral Research Committee;
 - f) Providing data that has already been published or materials obtained from third parties.
8. Authorship clearly establishes accountability as well as credit. An author who is willing to take credit for a paper must also bear responsibility for its contents. Anyone listed as an author on a paper should accept responsibility for ensuring that he/she is familiar with the contents and can identify their contribution to it.
9. University reserves the right to appropriately consider the issues which arise due to above or those which are not covered through this policy. The decision taken by the Vice Chancellor on recommendation of Dean, Post Graduate Studies and Research and Development will be final and binding.
10. No representation shall be entertained on the action taken upon the defaulters breaching the prescribed authorship policy.
11. In the event of violation of authorship policy, the University authority shall take final decision after necessary investigation as required in the matter. Action against those violating the policy will be taken by respective Dean after approval of Vice Chancellor.
